FRESNO STATE IDENTIFICATION

For athletics department purposes, the University prefers to be called simply FRESNO STATE - never Fresno State University and never shorten to Fresno.

For graphics or abbreviations, we ask that you please use FS - not FRES, FSU, CSUF or Fresno. Another acceptable abbreviations is Fresno St.

The University's formal name is California State University, Fresno. Fresno State is the preferred reference, less formal name for the university. It is acceptable as a first text reference, as well as subsequent references.

"V" IS FOR VALLEY

Fresno State prides itself on being the "Valley's team." This pride can be seen in the form of a green V on the Bulldogs' logo and uniforms, as a symbol to the agricultural community of Central Valley of California.

The San Joaquin Valley is the world's richest agricultural valley in export dollars.

2019 OUTLOOK

Reloaded 'Dogs ready to build off historic 2018

The Fresno State volleyball team officially opened practice on Friday, Aug. 9 three weeks ahead of its season opener on Aug. 30 at a tournament in Green Bay, Wisc.

"This year is exciting because there are a lot of really talented players and our depth, the diversity of our lineup, and the adaptability of our players will be fun to see," Fresno State second-year head coach Jonathan Winder said. "A lot of our players have had really good experience at a high level so I think the standard of performance is higher this season and the expectations of how we train and how we compete are higher to begin the year. A lot of that has to do with the culture and the success we had on the court last year and the legacy that they have set of how to train to be a Fresno State volleyball player."

The new-look 'Dogs have just five returners from the 2018 roster and added 10 newcomers in the offseason. After a historic 2018 season in which the team finished second in the MW for the first time and won a postseason match for the first time since 1995, Winder looks to replace seven graduating seniors while continuing the program's rise in the Mountain West.

"The girls have been great this summer and have all really connected," Winder said. "I'm excited to see everybody again and get to work. A lot of players on our team have a bit of a chip on their shoulder and something to prove, either to show that last year was just the beginning and for those coming in here to prove that they are great Div. I volleyball players."

Fresno State will practice twice per day in nine of the next 12 days leading up the start of the fall semester on Aug. 21. The Bulldogs will welcome back their alumnae and play a Red-Blue scrimmage in the Save Mart Center on Aug. 23 before taking on Ohio to open the season on Friday, Aug. 30, in the first of three matches at the Green Bay Invite.

"The preseason is a little more challenging this year because I knew most of the players going into the fall last year with just three incoming players," Winder said. "This year we have nine that are just starting with us so it's much more challenging to figure out the lineup right away. There will be a lot of opportunities throughout the preseason for a lot of players to be out on the court as we let the team evolve and grow and figure out how we can best compete."

The Returners

Though the Bulldogs lost nine players from the 2018 roster, two of their four All-MW selections are back in 2019. Senior setter Madelyn Halteman put together the best season of her career in 2018, ranking second in the MW in assists and tallying 11 double-doubles en route to her first All-MW selection. Halteman led the 'Dogs to a .230 hitting percentage last year, the third highest in a season in program history, and also led the team with 38 service aces and ranked third with 2.21 digs per set. She enters her final collegiate season with 2,883 career assists, fifth most in program history.

In her first season as Fresno State's starting libero, Reagan Leonard broke the single-season program record with 605 digs. Leonard earned All-MW honorable mention honors as she led the MW and ranked 27th in NCAA Div. I in total digs and was second in the league averaging 4.65 digs per set. Leonard had 20 or more digs in 12 matches, breaking the single-match program record with 38 digs at Eastern Illinois, and also led the team with a .944 serve reception percentage. She was named MW Defensive Player of the Week twice during the 2018 season and added 22 service aces.

Junior Jocelyn Rodriguez was one of just three newcomers in 2018 and made an immediate impact with the Bulldogs, starting 23 matches and playing in all 33 as a defensive specialist. The San Francisco State transfer ranked fourth on the team with 263 digs and 2.05 digs per set, averaging 2.20 digs per set in MW play. She also ranked fourth on the team with 23 service aces with a team season-high five aces in one match, and added 23 assists.

In her first season as a middle blocker, senior Montez Uigaese started the first 14 matches of the 2018 season and ranked second on the team with 1.02 blocks per set. Uigaese had multiple blocks 12 times and had five or more blocks eight times while also totaling 65 kills, 33 digs, and 11 service aces.

Lauren Sabbatini returns as well to play in her first season after redshirting as a true freshman during the 2018 season.

The Newcomers

Two-thirds of the 2019 team is comprised of newcomers with four freshmen and six transfers. Outside hitter Desiree Sukhov, a transfer from CSU Bakersfield, has been at Fresno State since the spring semester after two strong seasons as a Roadrunner in which she helped lead the team to a WAC title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017. The nine other newcomers will be entering their first semester at Fresno State.

Three of the other transfers began their careers at Power 5 schools. Rebecca Rendahl opened her collegiate career at the University of Minnesota, where she redshirted in 2018. Rendahl was part of a Golden Gophers team that was ranked as high as No. 1 in the nation, won the Big 10, and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

Two other new Bulldogs have joined the program from Pac-12 teams. Junior Savannah Smith played her freshman year at Washington State, playing in 56 sets and helping the Cougars reach of the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2017, before leading American River College to a state championship last year. Juila Handy was a two-time PrepVolleyball.com All-American at Turlock HS before redshirting as a freshman at Arizona in 2018.

McKenzie Kramer comes to the Bulldogs as a graduate transfer from the University of Montana, where she graduated in just three years with a degree in anthropology and has one remaining year of athletic eligibility. The Temecula native led Montana in blocks in two of her three seasons, while Amilya Thompson comes to the Bulldogs as a two-time AVCA Junior College All-American in two sensational seasons at San Joaquin Delta College in her home town of Stockton.

The team's four incoming freshmen are comprised of one setter, one middle blocker, one outside hitter, and one libero/defensive specialist. Setter Mikayla Weiss is a Central Valley native and local product of Clovis, where she led her Buchanan HS to a Central Section title and was named MVP of the Tri-River Athletic Conference during her senior season.

Amaria Kelley, an outside hitter from Sacramento, was a three-time

All-Delta League selection and had over 1,500 kills in her four prep seasons. Libero/defensive specialist Molly Eppright, the younger sister of former Bulldog libero and current assistant coach Maggie Eppright, was named Mountain League MVP at San Luis Obispo HS last year as she led her team to the 2018 Division Four CIF state championship.

One of just two Bulldogs not from California, Grace Doyle joins the Bulldogs as a middle blocker from Chandler, Ariz. Doyle's Perry HS team was ranked No. 2 in the state of Arizona last year and she was a Volleyball All-Premier Region first team selection as she hit .422 with 544 kills and 307 total blocks over her last three prep seasons.

The Schedule

The 2019 Bulldog schedule features one home tournament and nine home MW matches with eight total contests against 2018 postseason teams. The Bulldogs will face a challenging 30-match slate in 2019, starting with a tough non-conference season as two of Fresno State's non-conference tournaments will be hosted by teams that won their conference and qualified for the NCAA Tournament last season.

The 'Dogs will open the year in a tournament at Green Bay, which won the Horizon League title in 2018 to earn an NCAA Tournament bid. The Bulldogs will face Ohio to open the regular season on Aug. 30th in Green Bay before taking on Indiana State and the host Phoenix on Aug. 31.

Fresno State opens the home schedule hosting the Fresno State Invitational Sept. 5-6, welcoming CSU Bakersfield, Santa Clara, and CSUN to the Save Mart Center. The home opener for the 'Dogs will come against CSU Bakersfield on Sept. 5 and Fresno State will face CSUN and Santa Clara the following day while the tournament will also include three neutral-site matches.

The Bulldogs will head to Flagstaff, Ariz. the following week for a tournament hosted by reigning Big Sky champion and NCAA participant Northern Arizona. The 'Dogs will face an SEC foe while in Flagstaff, taking on LSU to open tournament play on Sept. 13, and will also face South Dakota State in addition to the host Lumberjacks. Fresno State will conclude its non-conference slate the following week taking on UC Davis, San Francisco, and CSU Bakersfield in a tournament hosted by the Roadrunners Sept. 20-21.

Fresno State will open the MW season at home on Sept. 26 with a match against Nevada. The 'Dogs play their first conference road match two days later at San Jose State before returning home for two more matches the following week. The Bulldogs will play three straight matches against 2018 postseason teams hosting NIVC semifinalist UNLV on Oct. 5 before going on the road to face defending MW champion Colorado State on Oct. 10 and NIVC qualifier Wyoming on Oct. 12.

Fresno State will also face UNLV on the road on Oct. 31 and host Colorado State and Wyoming on Nov. 7 and 9, respectively. After starting MW play with three of four matches at home the 'Dogs will play three of their last four MW contests on the road, closing the home schedule against Air Force on Saturday, Nov. 16, before ending the regular season at Boise State and Utah State.

JONATHAN WINDER

Head Coach • 2nd Season • Irvine, Calif. • Pepperdine, 2008

Jonathan Winder completed a historic first season leading Fresno State Volleyball in 2018. Winder was announced as the new head coach for the Bulldog Volleyball program on Jan. 23, 2018.

Winder guided the 2018 Bulldogs to a 22-11 overall record and 13-5 mark in the MW as the team broke the program record for conference wins in a season and finished in 2nd place in the MW for the first time after being picked seventh in the preseason MW Coaches' Poll. Fresno State finished behind only Colorado State, a program best MW finish and the first second place conference finish since the 2003 team was second in the WAC West division. Since joining the MW in 2012 the highest the 'Dogs had ever previously finished in the league was 4th place.

Fresno State's 22 wins were its most in 16 years, since the 2002 team finished the year 23-7, and Winder broke the program record for wins by a first year coach. The Bulldogs earned an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), the team's first postseason selection since 2002, and a first round NIVC win over UC Santa Barbara on Nov. 29 was the 'Dogs first postseason victory since 1995.

During the 2018 season the Bulldogs started the year 7-1 in non-conference play and began 9-1 in MW play, including a 3-1 home victory over perennial power Colorado State, Fresno State's first win over the Rams since 2012. A program-record four Bulldogs earned All-Mountain West honors, with seniors Taylor Slover and Haile Watson and junior Madelyn Halteman named All-Conference while sophomore Reagan Leonard earned honorable mention. The four all-conference honors were the most for the program since 2003 as the 'Dogs had never before received more than two All-MW accolades as a member of the conference.

The 2018 Bulldogs led the MW in digs and were second in kills and assists and third in blocks in conference play. The 'Dogs set a new program record with 1,999 digs and tied the program record with 316.0 blocks. Reagan Leonard broke the single-season digs record with 605 digs and a 4.65 digs per set average during the year and Haile Watson's 156 blocks ranked 19th in NCAA Div. I and tied for the fourth most in a season in program history.

Winder and his staff made an immediate impact in the community as Fresno State ranked second in the MW in average home attendance behind only Colorado State in 2018. Fresno State was one of just four NCAA Div. I schools in California that averaged more than 1,000 fans per match and topped 1,000 fans in 10 of its 13 home matches. The 'Dogs had a higher average home attendance than Pac-12 schools Cal and Washington State.

A four-time All-American and the 2007 NCAA Player of the Year as a student-athlete at Pepperdine, Winder spent three seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Washington women's indoor volleyball program and the head coach of the Husky beach volleyball team. A 2008 graduate from Pepperdine, his coaching career began at his alma mater where he served as assistant coach for the men's team from 2013-15 after playing professionally and for the U.S. national team.

A native of Irvine, Calif., Winder helped lead Washington to a 105-21 record over the last three seasons. The Huskies won back-to-back Pac-12 championships and had consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 2015 and 2016 while reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2017. Courtney Schwan, the 2016 Pac-12 Player of the Year, was one of eight All-Americans and 18 different All-Conference Husky student-athletes Winder coached.

Washington reached the No. 1 national ranking for several weeks under Winder as the team finished 1st, 1st, and 2nd in the Pac-12 in his three years with the program. He has recruited extensively in California and brought in multiple top 25 student-athletes in the classes of 2017, 2018, and 2019, including five top 80 players in 2018 class.

In two seasons leading the Husky beach volleyball program Winder led the team to a third place finish in the 2017 Pac-12 Championships after taking fourth place in 2016. He improved the team's record from 4-7 to 11-7, finishing 2017 ranked No. 16 in the NCAA. He coached six All-Pac-12 student athletes on beach with eight selections over 2016 and 2017, second only to national champion USC.

In his first full season as a coach at Pepperdine in 2014 the Waves tied for first in the MPSF with an 18-6 record, reaching the conference tournament semifinals and ending the year ranked No. 4 nationally. Winder initially returned to Malibu in 2013 to work as an academic coordinator in the Pepperdine athletics department. He then moved into his assistant coaching role in June of 2013 under legendary head coach Dr. Marv Dunphy, serving as the team's acting head coach in October 2015 when Dunphy was coaching at the World Championships.

Winder had one of the most storied collegiate men's volleyball careers in NCAA Div. I as he is one of only 11 four-time AVCA All-Americans in NCAA history. As a setter he led Pepperdine to an NCAA National Championship as a freshman in 2005 and was the NCAA National Newcomer of the Year and a second-team All-American. He earned second-team All-America honors again in 2006 and was first team in 2007 and 2008, leading the team to the final four and earning NCAA National Player of the Year honors as a junior and taking the team to the NCAA Finals as a senior.

Winder holds the career assists record at Pepperdine with 5,118, and ranked fifth all-time with 656 digs. He was also a standout in the classroom, earning 3rd team ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 2008 and being an MPSF Academic All-Conference selection in each of his four seasons.

Following his collegiate career Winder became a member of the U.S. National Team and was an alternate for Team USA at the 2012 London Olympics. In 2007, he was on the U.S. squad that finished first at the Pan American Cup and was on the 2009 team that finished in second place. He also helped the U.S. place sixth at the 2010 FIVB World Championships and was part of several other national team rosters, including the 2012 FIVB World League and as Team USA captain at the World University Games in 2006. He also played professionally overseas in France, Germany, Greece, and Romania.

Winder has connections with Fresno as his wife, Jaimie-Rose, is a Fresno native who attended Clovis West High School and Fresno City College. Winder's father-in-law, Vance Walberg, is the boys basketball coach at Clovis West and his sister-in-law, Heather Long, is the girls basketball coach at Clovis North.

Winder graduated from Pepperdine in 2008 with a B.A. in Advertising and earned a Masters of Business Administration in 2015 from the Devry University Keller School of Management. He and his wife have three children including sons Hudson, who was born in January of 2015, and Hayes, born in September 2018, and daughter Sutton, who was born in August of 2016.

HARDY WOOLDRIDGE

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season • Mission Viejo, Calif. • Washington , 2016

Hardy Wooldridge joined the Fresno State Volleyball program as an assistant coach in 2018.

Wooldridge helped lead the 'Dogs to a 22-11 overall record and 13-5 mark in the MW as the team broke the program record for conference wins in a season and finished in 2nd place in the MW for the first time after being picked seventh in the preseason MW Coaches' Poll.

Fresno State's 22 wins in 2018 were its most in 16 years, since the 2002 team finished the year 23-7. The 'Dogs earned an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), the team's first postseason selection since 2002, and a first round NIVC win over UC Santa Barbara on Nov. 29 was the 'Dogs first postseason victory since 1995. A program-record four Bulldogs earned All-MW honors.

Wooldridge previously worked alongside head coach Jonathan Winder for two seasons at the University of Washington, helping lead the Huskies to a Pac-12 championship and an Elite Eight appearance.

Wooldridge served as a volunteer assistant coach for two seasons at Washington, helping coach the serving, passing, and defensive aspects of the team. He also coordinated video and scouting resources, including Data Project and Volleymetrics, to help create match tactics.

While in Washington Wooldridge also served as a lead coach for Sudden Impact Volleyball Club and as a court lead coach at University of Washington volleyball camps. He also has coaching experience in California, having served as the freshman volleyball head coach at Tesoro High School in San Juan Capistrano and as the head coach of the U15 boys team for Balboa Bay Volleyball Club in Newport Beach for 2008 to 2011.

A native of Mission Viejo, Wooldridge began his collegiate career at Thompson Rivers University in British Columbia, Canada before playing overseas for Colombier Volley LNB in Neuchâtel, Switzerland. Wooldridge completed his undergraduate work at the University of Washington, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Geography in 2016.

MAGGIE EPPRIGHT

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season • San Luis Obispo, Calif. • Fresno State, 2016

Former Fresno State libero Maggie Eppright returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in April 2018. A 2016 graduate of Fresno State, Eppright came back to the Bulldogs after serving on the Cal Poly coaching staff during the 2017 season.

In her first season as a coach for the Bulldogs, Eppright helped lead sophomore libero Reagan Leonard to an All-MW honorable mention selection as she broke the single-season program record with 605 digs in 2018, topping Eppright's previous program-best 573 digs in 2015. As a team the Bulldogs broke the single season program record with 1,999 digs on the year while leading the MW with 15.51 digs per set in conference play.

As a volunteer assistant coach at Cal Poly Eppright helped facilitate practice plans, worked directly with ball control & liberos, and assisted with Data Volley, scout videos and official visit logistics. Since February Eppright worked as an assistant technical coordinator with the US Men's National Volleyball team, helping code and clip matches in Data Volley 4.

Eppright also has previous coaching experience as the 14U & 17U Head Coach of 805 Elite Volleyball Club. In that role she ran tryouts, wrote practice plans, determined starting line-ups, instructed fundamentals, and improved training behaviors.

As a player at Fresno State Eppright was a four-year starter at libero and two-year team captain and was a 2015 All-Mountain West selection. She holds the program record for career digs per set (3.90) and is second in program history with 1,788 career digs. She is fourth in MW history in career digs and set the single-season program record with 573 digs in 2015. Eppright played in 459 career sets, third most in program history.

Eppright shined off the court as well in her time as a Fresno State student-athlete as she was Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) President and was the Mountain West nominee for 2017 NCAA Woman of the Year. She earned two CoSIDA Academic All-District selections and was a four-time Academic All-MW honoree as she totaled a 3.93 cumulative GPA.

A native of San Luis Obispo, Eppright earned a degree in interior design from Fresno State in 2016.

RUDY BARAJAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach • 2nd Season • Fresno State, 1983

Rudy Barajas enters his second season as Fresno State's volunteer assistant coach in 2019. In his first season with the Bulldogs, Barajas helped lead the 2018 'Dogs to a 22-11 overall record and 13-5 mark in the MW as the team broke the program record for conference wins in a season and finished in 2nd place in the MW for the first time after being picked seventh in the preseason MW Coaches' Poll.

Barajas has more than 20 years of volleyball coaching experience, having started as an assistant coach at Clovis West for the Boys' Varsity program. Under the guidance of Bob McCarthy he helped lead the Golden Eagles to three Valley Championships in 2002, 2007 and 2010. In 2000, Barajas became a head coach for Central Cal Boys Volleyball club team, leading the squad to multiple Junior Olympic medals.

Barajas relocated to Bakersfield in 2011 and began his college coaching career at CSU Bakersfield under head coach Jolene Shepardson. During his time at CSUB, Rudy assisted the women's indoor team for two years while also being an assistant coach for the women's beach volleyball team for each of the four years he was located in Bakersfield.

After relocating back to Fresno in 2016, Barajas accepted a position as an assistant varsity volleyball coach for Buchanan High. He assisted with the girls program for three years, helping the Bears become the 2018 Valley Champions. In 2017 Barajas also returned as a head coach for the Central Cal Girls Volleyball club, which qualified for the 2018 Junior Olympics and finished tied for 5th in the USA division.

Outside of volleyball, Barajas worked as a Property and Casualty Claims Adjuster for State Farm for 31 years before retiring in 2018. A Fresno State graduate, Rudy and his wife, Regina, have twin daughters, Kathryn and Alexis, and a son-in-law, Danny.

KENDAL MUÑOZ

Director of Operations • 2nd Season • Monroe, Wash. • Stanislaus State, 2016

Kendal Muñoz joined the Fresno State Volleyball program in March 2018 as Director of Operations under head coach Jonathan Winder.

Muñoz came to Fresno after serving as a sports information assistant at Stanislaus State since August of 2016. In her position as the sports information assistant, Muñoz served as a sport contact for volleyball, women's basketball and softball. Her duties included writing student-athlete biographies, postgame recaps, weekly notes and coordinating interviews for her assigned sports. She was also responsible for the game day scorer's table staff and served as a statistician.

As a student-athlete at Stanislaus State Muñoz was a setter on the volleyball team from 2012 to 2016. In her first collegiate season Muñoz posted 982 assists to earn Stanislaus State Female Freshman of the Year honors. A back injury cut her competitive career short, but she contributed to the team's first trip to the CCAA tournament during her comeback season as a senior in 2015, tallying 94 assists in 15 matches played.

Muñoz, a native of Monroe, Wash., graduated from Stanislaus State in May of 2016 with a degree in Communications.

SEASON NOTES

- With 22 wins Fresno State had its most victories in 16 years, since the 2002 team finished the year 23-7. The 2018 squad finished 22-11 after posting a 12-18 record in 2017.
- Fresno State's second place finish in the MW was its best since joining the conference and its 13 conference wins were a new program record. The team had never before finished higher than fourth in the league and had been picked to finish seventh in the preseason Coaches' Poll.
- The Bulldogs earned an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), the team's first postseason selection since 2002, and a first round NIVC win over UC Santa Barbara was the 'Dogs first postseason victory since 1995.
- Coach Jonathan Winder recorded the most wins by a first year coach in program history and was one of just five first year Div. I coaches to earn 22 or more wins last season.
- Fresno State defeated 14-time MW champion Colorado State, 3-1, ending a nine-match losing streak to the Rams with its first win since 2012. CSU was one of five teams that the 'Dogs defeated that qualified for the postseason.
- The 'Dogs ranked second in the MW in average home attendance behind only Colorado State. Fresno State was one of just four NCAA Div. I schools in California that averaged more than 1,000 fans per match and topped 1,000 fans in 10 of its 13 home matches.
- Fresno State had a record-high four players earn All-MW honors, with Madelyn Halteman, Taylor Slover, and Haile Watson named All-MW and Reagan Leonard selected as Honorable Mention.
- The four all-conference selections were the most for the program in 15 years, since the 2003 team earned four all-conference awards as a member of the Western Athletic Conference (WAC).
- The Bulldogs finished the year with a program-record 1,999 digs, topping the previous single-season team record of 1,880 digs set in 2004.
- Fresno State had 316.0 blocks to tie the single season program record set in 2003. The team's 1,595 assists were the second most in a season in program history.
- The 2018 team finished third in program history in kills (1,686), hitting percentage (.230), and service aces (171)
- Fresno State won the first set in 20 of its 33 matches in 2018 and was 18-2 when taking the opening set. The 'Dogs ended the year undefeated (15-0) when recording the same or more aces than their opponent.
- Reagan Leonard broke the single-season program digs record with 605 digs. She topped the previous program record of 573 digs set by current assistant coach Maggie Eppright in 2015.
- Haile Watson's 156 total blocks tied for fourth most in a season in program history as she ranked 19th in NCAA Div. I in blocks. Watson ended her career fifth in program history with 402 career blocks despite playing just three seasons at Fresno State.

RUTH LAWANSON'S NO. 15 RETIRED

Ruth Lawanson not only rewrote the Bulldog volleyball record book in 1984, but also made school history in women's athletics by becoming the first female athlete, first athlete in a sport other than football, fourth athlete overall and first volleyball player to have her jersey number (15) retired.

Lawanson, the 1984-85 Fresno State Athlete of the Year, guided the Bulldog volleyball squad to the finest season in school history as Fresno State jumped into the NCAA Top 20 rankings for the first time and ended up tying for fifth in the nation at the NCAA Tournament. Fresno State finished with a final 26-13 overall record and 11-1 (second place) NorPac slate, both school-record win totals.

The 5-8 setter-hitter, a three-time Fresno State volleyball Most Valuable Player born in Ibadan, Nigeria, set season (488) and career (962) records for kills and a season record for service aces (55) in 1984 to garner All-America honors on the CVCA/Russell Athletic 12-member first-team, becoming the first and only volleyball All-American. She also captured a spot on the ASICS/Tiger All-America second team as well as NorPac Co-Player of the Year, All-NorPac first team, All-NorPac Tournament and All-Northwest Region honors.

After a brief stint with the U.S. National Team in 1985, Lawanson played with Dallas (1987) and Minnesota (1988-89) of Major League Volleyball. In 1988, Lawanson was named the Player of the Year of MLV after setting league records in kills (497) and hitting efficiency (.309). She returned to the U.S. National Team in 1989 and in 1992 won a bronze medal at the XXV Olympiad in Barcelona.

Joseph I. Castro

University President

Joseph I. Castro has served as the eighth president of California State University, Fresno since 2013. He is the first Californian and first Valley native to serve in this position. In 2017, Fresno State was ranked Number 17 in the nation by Washington Monthly and recognized by U.S. News and World Report as one of the nation's leading public universities for graduation rate performance.

Dr. Castro is a Professor of Educational Leadership in the Kremen School of Education and Human Development. He is a gifted scholar in the fields of leadership and public policy who has mentored hundreds of other scholars and practitioners, including many other university presidents and senior officers.

Prior to his appointment as President, he served as Vice Chancellor of Student Academic Affairs, and Professor of Family and Community Medicine at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) from 2006-13. UCSF is widely recognized as the leading health sciences university in the nation. Dr. Castro led UCSF's programs that served the academic and health care needs of its talented and diverse students. Earlier in his career, he held faculty and/or administrative leadership positions at four other University of California campuses – Berkeley, Davis, Merced and Santa Barbara.

Terry Tumey

Director of Athletics

Terrance J. "Terry" Tumey was appointed Fresno State Director of Athletics on August 1, 2018. Tumey most recently served as the Director of Athletics at Claremont-Mudd-Scripps, a unified Division III athletics program in Southern California. Tumey held the director of athletics title at two other institutions, UC Davis (2012-15) and Dominican University of California (2009-12).

Tumey has a rich history in football, having turned a playing career at UCLA (1984-87), where he was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference defensive lineman, into a coaching career. He was a graduate assistant and full-time assistant coach at UCLA, working with the Bruins from 1992-98 and then moved to the NFL ranks for two years with the Denver Broncos (1999-2000).

After coaching, Tumey joined the San Francisco 49ers staff as a player personnel assistant in 2001, moved up to assistant to the player personnel director in 2003, then assumed the role of director of football administration in 2004 until departing for his first AD job in 2009.

Tumey earned a B.A. in political science from UCLA with a concentration in business economics in 1988 and an M.B.A. from the UCLA Anderson School of Management with a focus on entrepreneurship and strategy in 1993.
